1 Story

There was once a peaceful and prosperous galaxy. It was glorious and lasted for 2000 years, but all that changed when the evil Zenith horde took over the Galaxy. All hope was lost and no one dared to stand up to the horde. This all changed one day when there was a resistance group. This group "uniquely" called "the rebellion" needed to find a way to defeat the Evil hoard. They pushed hard and fast. It all comes down to this last Fight.
